Chapter 1 by Isabella Rose Nikle

I've always wanted to see the world. I know that I'll never get to. I've never ventured out of the tower, because the witch says, if I leave, I'll be dead. I believe every word that she has ever said. But, when you're living in this modern world, somebody's bound to pass by....

Chapter 2 by Green

There is only one way out that I have ever known, it is also the only way in. My mother told me if I were to ever meet someone I should never let them in, speak to them, or even let them know I existed. One afternoon my Mother left and I was left alone to stare out to the sky. There was something strange this time, not like other times where I was left alone, this time I was hearing, and seeing something not my Mother at all. This person? What is he doing here? I was so frightened by the sound he was making.
